

4th Annual Jewish Cultural Festival

Sunday, April 10 -
Monday, April 18, 2016

Sunday, April 10

Lyndhurst Historic Trust

Joan Nathan on Jewish Cooking

Meet Joan Nathan, the authority on Jewish cooking from many perspectives: culinary, cultural, and historic. She is the award-winning author of twelve cookbooks and a regular contributor to The New York Times, Food Arts Magazine, and Tablet Magazine. She is joining us for two Sunday afternoon events:

Passover Cooking: An Intimate Hour in the Kitchen with Joan Nathan

A lucky few will join Joan for an intimate cooking demonstration and chat focusing on a few recipes from her bestselling book, “Quiches, Kugels, and Couscous: My Search for Jewish Cooking in France.”

Time: 2:00–3:00 p.m.

Site: Lyndhurst Historic Trust
Carriage House

635 South Broadway, Tarrytown

Fee: $75 per person

Space is limited, so sign up early!

Don't Freeze the Shank Bone and More!

Joan will delight us with a history of the foods of Passover through the ages in that engaging way that only this doyenne of Jewish cooking can. How have tastes and traditions changed over time and place?

Time: 3:30-4:30 p.m.

Site: Lyndhurst Historic Trust,
Carriage House

635 South Broadway, Tarrytown

Fee: $18 in advance or $25 at the door
Refreshments to follow.

Monday, April 11

Classically Jewish

Husband and wife duo, violinist Sergey Nazarov and pianist Marianna Udler, perform classical music written by Jewish composers, and Jewish music written by classical composers! The program will include works by Mendelssohn, Kreisler, and Wenyavsky as well as by contemporary composers. Presented in conjunction with the Renard Lectures.

Time: 10:00–11:30 a.m.

Site: JCC on the Hudson
371 South Broadway, Tarrytown

Fee: $5

Tuesday, April 12

A Bintel Brief: The “Dear Abby” Column of The Forward

Oy, what tzuris! Before Abby dispensed advice, NY’s Eastern European immigrants turned to the Yiddish paper, The Jewish Daily Forward, for help with their problems in life and love. Yiddish expert Maddy Simon will share (and help translate) some questions, and we’ll all do our best to guess what advice the Bintel Brief gave before we hear the published replies!

Time: 1:00–2:30 p.m.

Site: JCC on the Hudson,
371 South Broadway, Tarrytown

Fee: $10

Thursday, April 14

Dough

What can an old Jewish baker do to save his ailing business? Hire a young refugee from Darfur, who inadvertently adds a little something to the dough that makes the challah fly off the shelves! It's a fun trip of a movie. Starring Jonathan Pryce. Rabbi Jay Stein, Greenburgh Hebrew Center, will host a short discussion after the film.

*All the Rage
at Jewish Film Festivals!*

Time: 7:30-9:30 p.m.

Site: Greenburgh Hebrew Center
515 Broadway, Dobbs Ferry

Fee: $10

Friday, April 15

Mini Mitzvah Makers

For pre-K classes of the Rivertowns Jewish Consortium Members' Early Childhood Programs

Four year olds in the early childhood programs of the RJC will celebrate Shabbat together, participate in the mitzvah of feeding the hungry, and enjoy some great entertainment. Through social action and celebration, children become part of a wider Jewish community. By invitation only.
